Information about the town	- The city Granada is a city of about 230,000 inhabitants that enjoys a privileged geography. It is located halfway between the sea and the mountains: 40 minutes from the Mediterranean coast with its tropical climate and 30 minutes from the Sierra Nevada ski resort. It is a historical, cultural, monumental and university city. Its charm and the many cultural and entertaining activities it offers make it a great student city and a wonderful tourist destination. The cultural offer of Granada is enormous: flamenco festivals, jazz, tango, theatre, magic, music, dance, comics, cinema, poetry, etc. Spanish cuisine is internationally renowned for its quality and variety and Granada is also known for its tapas. It is a safe and modern city, welcoming and cosmopolitan. It is the destination of choice for European Erasmus + students and enjoys an unusual student environment with over 60,000 students.
